SUBJECT No. 69.

Prohibition of entry of Kandharis into Mysore or levy of tax on Kandhari visitors.

Messrs. Sanganabasappa, Chennaveerappa, Shikarpur taluk, and Srinivasa Dikshit, Shikarpur Municipality.

Summary of discussion.—The Kandharis give much trouble to villagers. Kandharis may be prohibited from entering the State.

If this cannot be done, a tax of Rs. 10 may be levied from every Kandhari who enters the State and a tax of Rs. 3 from every Kandhari who visits places of jatra.

Reply of Government.—Will be considered.

No. Z S-84 [illegible] III [illegible] 01689

Dated 4th May 1918

Enc: one

Forwards a set of rules under Section 78, clause 2 of the Police Regulation prescribing the manner of surveillance and control to be exercised over the Kandharis gang.

Office of the Inspector General of Police in Mysore,

No 7584/537

Bangalore, dated the 4th May 1918.

From

K.R. Sreenivasaiengar Esquire, M.A.,

Inspector General of Police in Mysore

To

C.S.Balasundaram Iyer Esquire, B.A.,

Chief Secretary to the Government of

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

Sir,

With reference to subject No.G-79 of the Mysore Representative Assembly re the prohibition of the entry of Kandharis into Mysore, I have the honor to state that, at present these gangs are watched in the same way as other local nomadic gangs. In the case of a turbulent and lawless class of people like the Kandharis and other kindred tribes a more organized and efficient check over them and supervision of their movements is, however, necessary, if they are to be prevented from terrorising and victimising the ryots in the countryside as they are now often doing. I have therefore drawn up a set of draft rules under Section 78, clause 2 of the Police Regulation prescribing the manner of surveillance and control to be exercised over these gangs. They are framed in accordance with the rules now in force in the Bombay Presidency (vide paras 452 and 453 of the Bombay Police Manual). They were discussed at the recent conference of Superintendents held by me last month and have been approved by them.

2. I request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to the rules and have them issued under Section 78, clause 2 of the Mysore Police

Police Regulation.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Inspector General of Police.

DRAFT RULES

It shall be the duty of the ~~Police~~ Patel to give immediate information to the officer in charge of the Police Station within whose limits his village is situated, of the arrival of gangs of Heratis, Beluchis, Kabulis, Kandharis and other cognate tribes within the limits of his village.

2. On receipt of such information the Sub Inspector or other officer in charge of the Police Station shall at once report the fact to the District Superintendent of Police and to the District Magistrate or Sub Divisional Magistrate through the Taluk Inspector, and he shall at once proceed to the spot where the gang is encamped. Should any members of the gang be armed without a license they should be disarmed in accordance with the provisions of the Arms Regulation.

3. The intentions of the gang should be ascertained as soon as possible from its headman. They should be induced to travel by such route as will ensure their encamping only at villages large enough to supply their wants.

4. If the gang proves unreasonable and declines to follow a reasonable route, the Sub Inspector or the Jamedar will immediately move the District Magistrate or the Sub Divisional Magistrate to pass the necessary order compelling them to do so under Section 43 of the Police Regulation.

5. Large gangs should be prohibited from wandering about the district. No gang containing more than twelve members including men, women and children should be ordinarily allowed to move about the country. Whenever the number exceeds twelve, steps may be taken by the Police to break them into smaller groups by moving the District Magistrate or Sub Divisional Magistrate to act under Section 43 of the Police Regulation.

6. Two or more constables, according to the strength of the gang, should be detailed to watch the gangs, as they move from place to place and to see that they keep to the declared, or prescribed route. Their sole duty will be to keep the gangs under surveillance. Whenever they notice that the gangs act improperly, or in violation of their declared intentions, or the conditions imposed by the District Magistrate or Sub Divisional Magistrate, they must forthwith report the facts to the nearest officer in charge of a Police Station for necessary action.

7. When any gang commits any depredation no effort should be spared in bringing the chief offenders to justice for specific crimes or treating them as the law allows under Chapter VIII of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

8. Police officers of and above the rank of Jamedars may record the finger impressions of all members of such gangs.

9. Licenses to carry arms shall not be granted to members of these gangs.

10. No Government Officer shall give any safe conduct pass, certificate, testimonial or other note of general recommendation to members of these gangs.

Inspector General of Police.
